

Call for Book Chapters 2023 for Springer Global Series

A minimum of 12 abstracts for each theme below. The abstracts must be 200 words each, outlining the aim and contribution, knowledge gap, methodology, results, discussion, conclusion and way forward of the proposed chapter. Case studies within Zimbabwe are welcome as well. The abstracts should be sent to researchic2030@gmail.com and must indicate the proposed title of chapter, author(s) full name(s), affiliation(s) and email address of the corresponding author. The deadline for submission of the abstract is 31 October 2022. Abstracts shall be assessed based on originality, ability to demonstrate methodological rigour and ability by authors to suggest tangible solutions for sustainable development.

Theme 1: Health and Wellbeing Enhancement in Zimbabwe: Strides, Hiccups and Opportunities

Theme 2: The Promotion of Inclusive and Equitable Quality Education and Lifelong Learning Opportunities in Zimbabwe

Theme 3: Gender and Femininity in Zimbabwe: Practices, Challenges and Prospects

Theme 4: Water and Sanitation in Zimbabwe: Mechanisms, Policy and Sustainability

Theme 5: Economic Growth, Full Employment and the Decent Work Question in Zimbabwe

Theme 6: Ending Poverty in Zimbabwe: Myths, Realities and Possibilities

Theme 7: Innovation and Industrialisation in Zimbabwe: Alternatives for Growth and Inclusivity

Theme 8: Zimbabwe and the Regional and Global Spheres: Perspectives on International Relations and Development

Theme 9: Human Settlements in Zimbabwe: Perspectives on Resilience, Sustainability, Safety and Inclusivity

Theme 10: Towards Sustainable Production and Consumption in Zimbabwe

Theme 11: Climate Change and its Impacts in Zimbabwe: Optimising for the Sustainable Path

Once the abstract has been accepted, the authors are encouraged to produce a full chapter of between 6000- and 8000-words size, including references, within 2 months. The full chapters shall be subjected to blind peer review. Publication of the books is expected at mid-2023.